Headline:
Mainly dry New Year's Eve. Rain likely after midnight. Mild.

This Evening and Tonight:
Mostly dry and mild through the rest of New Year's Eve, although breezy with some thickening cloud that could give the odd spot of drizzle across western hills. Narrow rain band then moves northeast after midnight, with winds strengthening. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Saturday:
Rather cloudy and windy start to the New Year, with a chance of further brief rain, but soon brightening up. Likely dry, with blustery sunshine by the afternoon. Mild. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
A mixture of sunshine and showers Sunday and Monday, perhaps some longer spells of rain. A band of rain moves south Tuesday, turning colder, with some wintry showers on hills.
